Canadian Junior Angus Showdown Graphic Design Competition Showcases Youth Talent

September 3, 2021: For Immediate Release

Rocky View County, AB—Canadian Junior Angus is pleased to announce the winners of the Showdown 2021 Graphic Design competition. The winners of this competition received their awards at the Showdown Cook-off on Thursday, August 26.

In the junior division (ages 9–12) the champion was Kade Rancier of Killam, AB and reserve was won by Landon Brandl of Jarvie, AB.

In the intermediate division (ages 13–16) the champion was Jake Curtis of Forestburg, AB and reserve champion was awarded to Wynton Brandl of Jarvie, AB.

In the senior division (ages 17–21), Jessica Davey of Saskatoon, SK was awarded champion and reserve champion went to Halley Adams of Forestburg, AB.

There were seven different competitions open to Juniors to compete in virtually or in person this year. Participants in the Graphic Design Competition create an ad using their computer at home and bring it to Showdown for judging. The ads are judged on their originality, eye appeal and information and must promote the Angus breed, the beef industry or an individual herd. This year's judges were Jaelayne Jacobs and Dakota Hunker.

Canadian Junior Angus is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by Canadian Junior Angus. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and travel challenges, this year events were offered both in person and virtually. 105 participants and 100 head of cattle took part in the 21st annual Showdown in Olds, Alberta.
